

IN JUNIOR LEAGUE BOW

MARGARET TRUMAN MEETS CLUB MEMBERS HERE.

Secret Service Men Stand at Door While President's Daughter Chats With Friends in the Clubhouse.

The newly-paired walls of the Junior League clubhouse at 107 East Fifty-eighth street resounded with pebbles rattled in the chattering afternoon, when more than 200 members officially welcomed a new group of provisional members and transfers, including the daughter of the President of the United States.

LINE INCLUDES PROVISIONAL MEMBERS.

The receiving line, headed by Mrs. Ernest A. Dick, president, and Mrs. G. G. Coker, membership chairman, included twenty-six provisional members and nine transfer members. Three provisional members were unable to attend.

Provisional members are women accepted into the league, subject to a 1-year probationary period. During this period they attend a 2-year training course of lectures on philanthropy, league history and social services and tours of Kansas City institutions.

Miss Truman became a provisional member of the Washington league this spring, but was unable to attend the training course. She is expected to take the course here beginning tomorrow. Following the course, an examination is given, which a provisional member must pass in order to remain in the league.

GUARDS FEAR NO HARM

While Miss Truman chatted with former acquaintances and new members the secret service agent assigned to her waited outside the

NEW MEMBERS FOR THE JUNIOR LEAGUE, the largest group in the organization's history, were introduced yesterday at a tea at the league clubhouse, 107 East Fifty-eighth street.

Attending the tea was Miss Margaret Truman, a provisional member in the Washington league. Twenty-six of the twenty-nine Kansas City members were in the receiving line. They are left to right seated on floor: Miss Pauline Butler and Miss Margaret Hendren; second row, Mrs. Robert L. McMoran, Jr. seated on arm of divan; Mrs. Kenneth Stephens, Mrs. Frank Newcomer, Jr., Miss Kate Roberts, Miss Hope Christopher tall seated on divan; Miss Beatrice Buckling and Miss Elizabeth Ess. (both on right arm of divan), and standing, Miss Joan Jenkins, Miss Gayle Gray, Miss Barbara Hall, Miss Neary Polidexter, Miss Virginia Gabel, Miss Alene Snyder, Mrs. Donald G. Greer, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Ryland, Mrs. Paul Van Osdol, Jr., Mrs. Lynn B. Feilfou, Miss Ann Wallace, Miss Joyce Woodbury, Mrs. Blaine Hibler, Miss Janice Woodbury, Mrs. Maxwell Ivy, Miss Joan Purdy and Mrs. Howard A. Austin, Jr. Three unable to attend were Miss Mary Helen Black, Mrs. Preston Shamer and Miss Gloria Snyder. (Kansas City Star photograph.)

Thursday morning Maxine Thomson, reporter.

woman at the tea. Mrs. Truman wore a black crepe dress, with black accessories. Hers was a long-sleeved, high-necked dress, with a hair brushed back in page-boy style. Black gloves, pouch purse and shoes completed her outfit.

This is the thirty-fourth group of provisional members, and the largest in the Kansas City league's history. The recently redecorated room, customarily used for business meetings, proved too small for the first party since redecoration.

45 PROVISIONAL MEMBERS.

Provisional members this year are Mrs. Howard A. Austin, Jr., Miss Pauline Butler, Miss Beatrice Hendren, Mrs. Hope Christopher, Mrs. Elizabeth Ryland, Mrs. Joan Jenkins, Mrs. Robert L. McMoran, Jr., Mrs. Frank Newcomer, Jr., Miss Neary Polidexter, Miss Joan Purdy, Miss Kate Roberts, Miss Elizabeth Ryland, Miss Alene Snyder, Mrs. Kenneth Stephens, Mrs. Paul Van Osdol, Jr., Miss Ann Wallace, Miss Janice Woodbury, and Miss Joyce Woodbury. Those unable to attend were Miss Mary Helen Black, Mrs. Preston Shamer, and Miss Gloria Snyder.

Members transferring from leagues in other cities who were introduced yesterday were Mrs. Harrison Newlin, Montclair, N. J.; Mrs. D. W. True, Bullie, Mont.; Mrs. Bradley Barz, Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Richard Merrick, Seattle; Mrs. C. N. Heldt, Jr., Chicago; Mrs. Henry S. Dreher, Topeka; Mrs. Marshall Biles, St. Louis; Mrs. Nell Luzier, Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Mrs. George H. Wood, St. Joseph.

RESTING FOR A MOMENT AFTER A LONG RECEIVING LINE... Miss Margaret Truman pauses with childhood friend, Miss Mary Shaw, at a Junior League tea yesterday afternoon. Miss Truman joined the Washington League this spring. (Kansas City Star photograph.)

door, apparently assured that no harm could come to the President's daughter in that company of women. As did most of the younger, Miss Truman wore her blond ruffled front. A single strand of pearls broke the black at the neck. Under an off-the-face black felt hat, Miss Truman wore her blond